

1 THE FIRST GAME

Explore the Origins exhibit.

What sport was one of the earliest games played in the Geelong region?

Answer:

2 A CHAMPION'S DIARY

Find Bev Francis' Diary.

Take a peep into Bev's training regime and see what it takes to reach peak fitness. Write the most surprising thing you see in her journal entries.

I can't believe she...

3 BRAIN HURDLES

Complete the Sporting Quiz.

Test your sports knowledge and see if you can get a personal best. Record your score out of 10 below.

Score:

 10

4 RACEHORSE HIDEOUT

Find the newspaper article about Phar Lap.

Where did they hide the champion racehorse on the eve of the Melbourne Cup? Why did he have to hide?

Answer:

5 DESIGNED TO PLAY

Explore the Innovation Wall.

All these products solve a problem for athletes. Choose a product and describe how it helps sportspeople perform.

Product:

Solution:

6 ROW YOUR BOAT

Take on the Rowing Challenge.

Have a turn at rowing down the Barwon River. Record your average speed at the finish, or when your arms get too tired.

Average Speed:

7 STOMPING GROUND

Jog back through Kardinia Park's history to when giants roamed the grounds.

Name three animals from the old Kardinia Park Zoo.

1.
2.
3.

8 KNOT TOO BAD

Find the sailing knot which uses a rhyme to help remember it.

Write the name of the knot below and have go at tying it. Why knot try tying the others too?

Answer:

9 CLASS ACT

Use the Interactive Displays to find the Try Boys Brigade story.

Scroll through the story and find the image of the Try Boys Brigade in a gymnasium. Name one of the classes the boys could take part in below.

Answer:

Capture your visit to Geelong Sports Museum

Grab a team or go solo and pose for a photo in the Photobooth. You can save your photo by entering your email address.

Tick the box when you're finished and congratulations on completing the Geelong Sports Museum Decathlon.

BONUS CHALLENGES:

- Call a play in the Commentators Booth
Save your recording by entering your email address.
- Catch a film in the Theatrette
Sit back and enjoy a selection of short sporting films in the Museum theatrette.